International Conference on Materials Engineering (ICME 2017)

June 2-4, 2017

Abstracts for posters are invited for the following themes/subthemes:

Themes and Subthemes

S. Structural Materials

- S1: High Strength Alloys
- S2: Non-equilibrium Processing
- S3: Microstructural Characterization
- S4: Ceramics and Composite Materials
- S5: Mechanical Properties

II. Functional Materials

- F1: Biomaterials
- F2: Nano and 2D Materials
- F3: Energy Materials
- F4: Organic and Hybrid Electronic Materials
- F5: Electronic and Magnetic Materials

Guidelines for Abstract Submission

- Abstract for posters should be submitted to icme2017poster@gmail.com
- The subject line of the email should be [ICME 2017 – Theme Name – Corresponding Author Name].
For e.g., “ICME 2017 – Structural Materials – Rajdip Mukharjee”
- While submitting authors must mention the following items in the email body:
 - ✓ Theme name
 - ✓ Subtheme name
 - ✓ Title of the abstract
 - ✓ Corresponding author
 - ✓ Presenting author

Abstract submission deadline (April 22, 2017)

Decision on abstract (April 24, 2017)

Registration deadline (May 10, 2017)

All attendees must register. For details, please visit www.iim-icme2017.org

ABSTRACT

The abstract must be submitted in MS word format and should be written in English. The page size should be A4 with single column, single spacing and 12 point Times New Roman (justified). The margins of the page should be 1 inch (25.4 mm) each on top, bottom, left and right. Please, briefly explain the aim and scope of your study, your materials and methods, and the main conclusions of the study. If it is necessary, supporting figures can be presented as part of the text but total content should not exceed one page including supporting figures and references. As we are planning to publish abstract booklet, a minimum 600 dpi resolution is required for images.

Keywords: Al-alloy; Ageing; Nanomechanics; Tribology; up to 6 words separated by semicolon.

References: Up to 4-6 references without the paper title.
